

Jesus said “My word” to Jews

April 2, 2014

John 8:31

King James Version (KJV)

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

- Jews study bible from when they were small age
- Jews already know 10 Commandments
- From the first 5 Books of bible, there are 613 commandments
(http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/613_commandments). Jews study all from their young age

Jesus said “My Word” to Jews

- Very Clear that , “My word” is not 10 Commandments / Law

“My Word” is “The Truth”. (i.e. 10 Commandments / Law is not the Truth)

Commandments say

- Do Good -> Get Good
- Do Bad -> Get Bad
- Do Good -> God bless you
- Do Bad -> Curses come over you

Very clear that, Jesus is not mentioning these commandments as “My Word”

“My Word” -> “The Truth” -> Set’s us free & Makes us His disciples

Commandments / Law -> DOESN’T sets you free & DOESN’T makes you His Disciple.

Preaching 10 Commandments is called doing Ministry of death
