

Have we forgiven from all trespasses?

June 6, 2014

Colossians 2:13-14

New King James Version (NKJV)

13 And you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you ALL trespasses, 14 having wiped out the handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross.

- God is the one who created time.
- God is out of time
- ALL means ALL
- ALL means your lifelong trespasses.
- ALL means Past, Present and Future Trespasses
- The Greek word translated ALL in this passage is pas.
- It means each, every, any, all, the whole, all things, everything.
- This would seem to support the claim that ALL sins past present and future were forgiven at the cross.

Hebrews 10:12-14

English Standard Version (ESV)

12 But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, 13 waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. 14 For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.

Psalms 103:3

New King James Version (NKJV)

3 Who forgives ALL your iniquities, Who heals all your diseases,

Bible Revelation · <https://biblerevelation.org/2014/06/have-we-forgiven-from-all-trespasses/>