Walk by Faith Not by Sight: Spirit Realm Supply and Speaking God's Word

2 Corinthians 5:7 (NKJV)

"For we walk by faith, not by sight."

Highlight key: = faith / spirit realm / supply · = God's Word and promises · = sight / fear / circumstances · bold = key terms

Faith is not pretending circumstances do not exist — it is agreeing with what God has already established in the spirit realm before it appears in the natural.

Fight the Good Fight of Faith

We are in a battle — but warfare is in the spirit, and where it takes place is in the mind. Stop being governed only by your five senses. God wants you in the spirit, living in the realm of faith. Faith is not straining to believe until something happens; it is revelation of the spirit realm where everything you need already exists.

1 Timothy 6:12 (NKJV)

"Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, to which you were also called..."

1 John 4:4 (NKJV)

"You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world."

The Real Battlefield Is the Mind

Believers are in a battle — but the weapons are spiritual, and the battlefield is often the mind. Fear, condemnation, accusation, and unbelief compete for your attention. The enemy’s goal is not merely negative thoughts; it is to shape how you think and keep you from believing what God says.

- Warfare is in the spirit — but it is fought in your thoughts.
- Strongholds are entrenched patterns of thinking opposed to God’s truth.
- The voices you listen to will eventually shape how you live and speak.
- Will you agree with fear — or with the Father who loves you?

John 10:27 (NKJV)

“My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me.”

2 Corinthians 10:3-5 (NKJV)

“For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ.”

The Spirit Realm Is More Real Than the Natural

We often trust what we can see, touch, and measure — yet invisible realities surround us every moment. Radio waves, Wi-Fi, and television signals are real though unseen. In the same way, the spiritual realm is no less real than the natural world.

What sight says	What faith sees
Visible things feel permanent	Seen things are temporal — subject to change
If I cannot see it, it is not real	Unseen things are eternal — more substantial
Problems define my reality	God’s Word defines a higher reality

What sight says	What faith sees
Supply begins when I see it	Supply exists in the spirit before manifestation

2 Corinthians 4:18 (NKJV)

“...while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.”

Luke 13:11-13, 16 (NKJV)

“And behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bent over and could in no way raise herself up... He laid His hands on her; and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God... So ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound... be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?”

Transformation often begins in the spirit before it becomes visible in the natural. Not every problem has a spiritual root — but God works in the unseen long before you see the breakthrough.

God is a Spirit. In the beginning He said “Light be!” — and light came out of darkness. He speaks the eternal reality, and the natural follows.

Genesis 1:3 (NKJV)

“Then God said, ‘Let there be light’; and there was light.”

Luke 4:18-19 (NKJV)

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me... to preach the gospel to the poor... to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.”

Hebrew and Greek Words — Complete Glossary

Scripture uses precise words for spirit, faith, and obedience. These terms are taught with highlighted letters exactly as in the original study slides.

Letter colours: □ / □ · □ · □ / □ · □ (final) · □ spirit / faith

Word	Transliteration	Meaning (as taught)
πνεῦμα	Pneuma	Spirit, breath, wind — like a pneumatic drill powered by air; the spirit realm feels like wind
πνεῦμα ἁγίου	Pneuma Hagios	Holy Spirit — the Spirit in you; greater is He that is in you than he in the world
רוּחַ	Ruach	Hebrew for spirit/breath/wind — same concept in Old Testament as pneuma in Greek ὕπακοή	Hupakoē	Obedience — in 2 Corinthians 10:5 the Greek has two definite articles: the obedience of the Christ
□ □ □ □	Yahweh (Yud-Heh-Vav-Heh)	God placed Heh (ה) from His name into Abraham and Sarah
אַבְרָהָם	Abraham	From Abram — father of multitude ; God spoke past tense: “I have made you a father of many nations”
סָרַי	Sarah	From Sarai — means princess ; God inserted Heh into her name
πίστις	Pistis	Faith — not striving to believe harder, but revelation of the spirit realm

Faith Receives What God Has Already Supplied

Faith does not create the miracle or generate God’s supply. The supply already exists because of Christ’s finished work. Faith is the window that lets the light in — the sunshine is already shining.

- A window does not produce sunlight — it receives it.
- Little faith = smaller window; more faith = more light received.
- Healing, wisdom, peace, and provision already exist in the spirit realm.
- The Bible tells you what the Father has already prepared.

Romans 10:17 (NASB)

“So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.”

Mark 4:14-15 (NKJV)

“The sower sows the word... these are the ones by the wayside where the word is sown. When they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts.”

2 Peter 3:1 (NKJV)

“...stir up your pure minds by way of reminder.”

Keep hearing God’s Word. Faith is strengthened; strongholds lose their grip; God’s truth becomes more real than your circumstances. Jesus did not come to make bad people good — He came to make dead people live. You have resurrection life right now.

Faith does not create God’s supply — it opens the window so the light already shining in the spirit realm can enter your life.

Romans 5:1-2 (NKJV)

“Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand...”

2 Corinthians 4:16-18 (NKJV)

“Therefore we do not lose heart... while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.”

Romans 10:8-10 (NKJV)

“But what does it say? ‘The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart’... that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.”

Feeding the Five Thousand — Thanksgiving Before Supply

Faced with scarcity — five loaves and two fish before thousands — Jesus did not focus on lack. He looked up to the Father and gave thanks for the little. Thanksgiving acknowledges heaven’s supply before manifestation.

Matthew 14:19 (NKJV)

“...He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitudes.”

John 6:11 (NKJV)

“And Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks He distributed them to the disciples...”

- Scarcity in the natural; abundance in the spirit realm.
 - Thanksgiving recognises supply is already present.
 - Twelve baskets left over — God’s heart is never lack or limitation.

The Obedience of Christ — Not Your Performance

When fearful thoughts arise, God’s answer is not to look inward at your performance. The Greek of 2 Corinthians 10:5 uses two definite articles: ὕπακοή (hupakoē) — the obedience of the Christ. Every thought must be brought captive to what Christ has already accomplished — not to your ability to obey.

Romans 5:19 (NKJV)

“For as by one man’s disobedience many were made sinners, so also by one Man’s obedience many will be made righteous.”

Romans 8:32 (NKJV)

“He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?”

If God gave you the greatest gift — His Son — will He withhold healing, provision, or wisdom? The cross settled forever the question of God’s heart toward you.

Colossians 1:22 (NKJV)

“...to present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight...”

The Spirit of Faith Believes and Speaks

God never intended truth to remain theology in your head. Faith believes first — then speaks. It does not wait for circumstances to change before agreeing with God.

2 Corinthians 4:13 (NKJV)

“And since we have the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, ‘I believed and therefore I spoke,’ we also believe and therefore speak.”

Person	What circumstances said	What God spoke
Gideon (Judges 6:12)	Hiding in fear	“The Lord is with you, mighty man of valor!”
Abraham (Genesis 17:5)	Childless at old age	“I have made you a father of many nations” — past tense
David (1 Samuel 17:45-47)	Giant before him	Spoke victory before the stone was thrown

Judges 6:12 (NKJV)

“And the Angel of the Lord appeared to him, and said to him, ‘The Lord is with you, mighty man of valor!’”

Genesis 17:5 (NKJV)

“No longer shall your name be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you a father of many nations.”

1 Samuel 17:45-47 (NKJV)

“Then David said to the Philistine, ‘You come to me with a sword, with a spear, and with a javelin. But I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts... This day the Lord will deliver you into my hand... that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.’”

God speaks according to His spiritual reality — not present circumstances. You are not creating a new reality with words; you are agreeing with what God has already established in His Word.

Mustard Seed Faith — Confidence in the Father

If you feel your faith is small, do not be discouraged. Jesus called His disciples you of little faith — while simultaneously assuring them of the Father’s provision.

Matthew 6:30 (NKJV)

“Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?”

Matthew 17:20 (NKJV)

“...if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.”

- The issue is not the size of your faith but the One upon whom it rests.
 - Even little faith receives from God — confidence is in the Father’s provision.
 - Do not despise your little faith — it still connects you to the spirit realm.

The Takeaway

1. The battlefield is your mind — choose whose voice you agree with.
2. The spirit realm is more real than what you see; seen things are temporal, unseen things eternal.
3. Faith is a window — it receives supply God has already provided through Christ.
4. Keep hearing God's Word; faith comes by hearing, and the enemy steals the Word.
5. Thanksgiving acknowledges supply before manifestation — like Jesus with the five loaves.
6. Bring every thought captive to the obedience of Christ — His finished work, not your performance.
7. The spirit of faith believes and speaks — agree with God's Word before you see it.
8. Even mustard-seed faith moves mountains because your Father is sufficient.
